

TravelBuddy

Enter a city to get weather, air quality, and packing suggestions:

dublin

Search

Weather in dublin

Temperature: 16.17°C (Feels like 15.59°C)

Conditions: clear sky

Humidity: 67%

Wind Speed: 4.47 m/s

Air Quality Index

AQI: 3 - Moderate

Main Pollutants: PM2.5: 11.43 µg/m³, PM10: 11.85 µg/m³

Packing Suggestions

Packing List:

- Waterproof Hiking Boots: For your visit to the Cliffs of Moher, waterproof hiking boots are essential as you'll be walking on wet and uneven terrain.
- Warm Layers: Given the moderate temperature (
- Waterproof Jacket or Coat: A waterproof outer layer is important to protect you from rain showers, which are common in Dublin.
- Gloves and Scarf: Don't forget these essential cold-weather accessories to keep your hands and neck warm.
- Umbrella: While a waterproof coat can help, carrying an umbrella for added protection against the rain is a good idea.
- Irish Slang Dictionary: To help you understand the locals and immerse yourself in the culture, pack a dictionary of common Irish slang phrases.
- Smartphone or Camera: To capture memories of your trip, make sure to bring along a camera or your smartphone with a good camera function.
- Guinness Brewery Reservation Confirmation: To ensure a smooth visit, print out or save the confirmation for your reservation at the Guinness Storehouse.
- Comfortable Walking Shoes: In addition to your hiking boots, bring a pair of comfortable shoes for exploring the city streets and pubs.
- Travel Adapter: Ireland uses Type G plugs, so don't forget to pack a travel adapter if you need one for your electronics.
- Check the weather forecast daily and adjust your packing accordingly. Dublin can experience sudden changes in temperature and rain showers.

- Visit the Cliffs of Moher early in the day to avoid large crowds and enjoy stunning views without obstruction.
- Dublin has a vibrant pub scene, so don't miss out on experiencing traditional Irish music at places like The Temple Bar or O'Donoghue's.
- Use the DublinBikes service for getting around the city if you prefer cycling over walking.
- Explore the city's rich history by visiting sites such as Trinity College, Dublin Castle, and Kilmainham Gaol.
- Sample local Irish dishes like fish and chips, boxty (Irish potato pancake), and bacon and cabbage during your trip.
- Learn a few common Irish phrases to impress the locals and make your experience more authentic.
- Keep an eye out for street performers and buskers in Temple Bar, Grafton Street, and other popular areas.
- Take a day trip to nearby attractions like the Wicklow Mountains or Howth Peninsula for breathtaking landscapes and unique experiences.
- Be respectful of local customs and traditions, and enjoy your cultural exchange in Dublin!

Travel Tips:

- Check the weather forecast daily and adjust your packing accordingly. Dublin can experience sudden changes in temperature and rain showers.
- Visit the Cliffs of Moher early in the day to avoid large crowds and enjoy stunning views without obstruction.
- Dublin has a vibrant pub scene, so don't miss out on experiencing traditional Irish music at places like The Temple Bar or O'Donoghue's.

- Use the DublinBikes service for getting around the city, if you prefer cycling over walking.
- Explore the city's rich history by visiting sites such as Trinity College, Dublin Castle, and Kilmainham Gaol.
- Sample local Irish dishes like fish and chips, boxty (Irish potato pancake), and bacon and cabbage during your trip.
- Learn a few common Irish phrases to impress the locals and make your experience more authentic.
- Keep an eye out for street performers and buskers in Temple Bar, Grafton Street, and other popular areas.
- Take a day trip to nearby attractions like the Wicklow Mountains or Howth Peninsula for breathtaking landscapes and unique experiences.
- Be respectful of local customs and traditions, and enjoy your cultural exchange in Dublin!

Raw LLM Response (Debug):

undefined